

Non-Disclosure Agreement
Yorktown Stables LLC

This agreement helps us create a safe, respectful, and positive environment for every child, family, and trainer at Yorktown Stables.

1. Why This Agreement Is Important

As part of our program, families may see or hear information that is private to Yorktown Stables or to other families. This includes things like lesson programs, schedules, pricing, or personal information about boarders and students.

This agreement simply asks everyone to respect that privacy and helps ensure fairness and professionalism for all.

2. What Information Is Considered Private

Private (confidential) information includes, but is not limited to:

- Names and information about students, boarders, and families
- Training methods, lesson programs, and teaching styles
- Pricing, financial details, and commission structures
- Vendor and business relationships
- Internal plans or operations of Yorktown Stables
- Any information not shared publicly.

By signing this agreement, you agree to:

- Keep this information private.
- Not sharing or discussing it outside of Yorktown Stables
- Not using it for personal gain or outside programs
- Return or delete any confidential information if asked or when involvement with the program ends.

These expectations continue even after lessons or involvement with the program end.

3. Why This Protects Children and Families

Maintaining confidentiality helps:

- Protecting children's privacy
- Preventing misunderstandings or gossip
- Maintain a positive and supportive learning environment.
- Allow trainers to focus fully on teaching and safety.

4. If the Agreement Is Violated

If this agreement is not followed, it could seriously harm the program. Yorktown Stables may take appropriate legal steps to protect its students, staff, and business.

5. Legal Information

This agreement follows the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia and represents the full understanding regarding confidentiality.

Our goal with this agreement is simple: to keep Yorktown Stables a safe, respectful, and welcoming place where children can learn, grow, and enjoy their time with horses.
